Mark Strange Vs. Jackie Chan on The Medallion

Mark Strange: Actor & Action Performer

Mark Strange is a hugely talented actor and fight choreographer with over ten years' experience in the film and TV industry.

As a martial arts expert, his extensive experience spans nearly 28 years. He has been twice crowned as National and Euro-British Champion, and has also represented Britain overseas.

As an actor, Mark has worked with acclaimed international stars such as Jackie Chan and Donnie Yen in such films as Warner Brothers' Batman Begins and Columbia Tri-Star's The Medallion and Twins Effect. He also gained the lead role in the independent British action film Displaced, featuring the voice of Sir Ian McKellen (Lord of the Rings, X-Men).

He starred in the critically acclaimed British action film 12, directed by Chee Keong Cheung, which also featured Danny John-Jules (Red Dwarf, Blade II) and Joey Ansah (The Bourne Ultimatum). Released worldwide, the film was praised for its hard hitting, realistic fights and was also the recipient of the prestigious Accolade Award for best stunts.

After the success of 12, Mark moved on to co-star in the action/drama feature film Bodyguard: A New Beginning, where he worked alongside key members of the Jackie Chan stunt team. The film was released through Lionsgate in North America and through Sony Pictures in France. Mark has also recently worked on the film Best Laid Plans with Stephen Graham (Snatch, This Is England) and Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje (The Thing, G.I. Joe: The Rise of Cobra).

“He’s a great martial artist and has phenomenal ability. I do feel he’s one of the real talents on the UK fight scene.”

Chee Keong Cheung, Director

Mark Strange: Martial Arts Expert

At 16 years of age, Mark was the youngest person in the UK to run his own full-time martial arts academy. While developing his own training he taught Chinese martial arts to students, and for fourteen years he divided his time between running a gym and building his name and fighting reputation.

During these years, Mark competed internationally and travelled to China with his instructor, Master Derek Frearson (Founder of the British Taijiquan and Shaolin Wushu Association), where he lived among the Shaolin Monks and embarked on full days of gruelling drills in both armed and unarmed combat.

Mark is a Master of many disciplines, including Tai Chi, Wing Chun and Seven Stars Praying Mantis.

As an all-round martial artist, he was the MAI National Chinese Forms Champion in 1992 and the Euro-British Full Contact Champion in 1999. He also represented Britain in the Chin Woo Championships in China in 2002.

Mark has appeared on the cover and featured in several mainstream martial arts and action publications, including Combat, Impact Action Magazine and Martial Arts Illustrated, as well as being inducted into both the Martial Arts Illustrated and Combat Magazine Hall Of Fame.

"One of the best martial artists I've ever had the pleasure of working with. Mark Strange understands both real life martial arts applications and how to adapt the techniques to make it look good on-screen"
